School Newsletter

This newsletter will be emailed to all parents who have set up Parent Pay accounts and is also on the school website under the Parents Tab. After the Christmas holidays we will not be sending out paper copies of the newsletter unless specifically requested. If you need help activating your Parent Pay Account, please contact Mrs Klair. 62% of our children have Parent Pay accounts. Thank you to those who have registered.

Christmas in school

Christmas in school may be different this year, but we will still be having Christmas fun with the children. During the last week of term a number of different Christmas activities will be taking place and on the last day of term—Friday 18th December—children can wear Christmas jumpers to enjoy their class Christmas parties.

We ask that children do not exchange Christmas cards or presents with staff or children this year.

School Dinners

Meals for children in Years 3 4 5 and 6 must be ordered on Parent Pay .

Bookings for meals have already closed for week beginning 30th November

Bookings for meals week beginning 7th December must be booked by SUNDAY 6th DECEMBER (we are now giving you slightly longer to book)
